

Literature Circle Role

WORD WIZARD

Your job:

Your job is to search for words in the story that you (or the other members) might not know. After you find challenging words, tell where they are used in the story and find their definitions.

When you meet with the other members:

First, share the challenging words you found. Show them where it is in the story. Then, have each person try to predict the definition. After everyone has shared their definitions, you can tell them the real meaning of the word.
